HULL LIFESAVING MUSEUM

October 30 – December 10, 2022

HULL LIFESAVING MUSEUM

AN EXHIBIT BY THE  Smithsonian MUSEUM ON MAIN STREET INITIATIVE

A PROGRAM OF

Hull Lifesaving Museum
 Point Allerton Station
 1117 Nantasket Avenue, Hull, MA

The Crossroads: Change in Rural America exhibit offers small towns a chance to look at their own paths to highlight the changes that affected their fortunes over the past century. The exhibition will prompt discussions about what happened when America's rural population became a minority of the country's population and the ripple effects that occurred.

Museum on Main Street (MoMS) is a Smithsonian outreach program that engages small town audiences and brings revitalized attention to underserved rural communities. The Smithsonian partners with state humanities councils to bring traveling exhibitions, educational resources and programming to small towns across America through their own local museums, historical societies and other cultural venues. Exhibitions are designed to engage communities and become a catalyst for conversation about life in small-town America. We want to start dialogue, build excitement, facilitate connections, and open doors to your community's history, culture, people, and sense of local pride.

Go back in time! Join Chris Child, genealogist, author, and lecturer from New England Historic Genealogical Society to discover the English families that settled in Hull in the 17th century, their historical impact on descendants there and elsewhere. Learn about the ancestry of Joshua James, Abraham Lincoln, and other genealogical populations in Hull through the centuries.

11/26 Clash of Cultures: The Pilgrims and The People of the First Light 10-12 XYZ Street Parking Lot Hull

Enjoy a riveting walking tour led by Sean Baggett about two cultures; the Pilgrims and Indigenous peoples. For a short time, they were successful in working, living and thriving; by putting aside their differences and prioritizing this complex relationship above their differences. Actions, views and decisions in this period led to the most devastating war in our history and set into motion the treatment of indigenous peoples for the next 400 years and cemented a legacy we continue to struggle with today.

12/1 History of the Massachusetts Lobstermen's Association 7-8 pm Nantasket Beach Resort 45 Hull Shore Drive

Join Beth Casoni, Executive Director of the Massachusetts Lobsterman Association as she takes us through the journey of the evolution of lobstering through the years. What the impact of fishery management and right whale conservation has been on the lobster industry. What does the future of lobstering look like?

12/8 Hull at the Crossroads: From Summer Playground to the Next Big Thing 7-8 pm Nantasket Beach Resort 45 Hull Shore Drive

Hull – what was once a quiet fishing village became a thriving summer resort whose fortunes during the next 100 years were linked to the amusement industry. As the town outgrew the carnival economy and developed into a year-round suburb, it set its sights on finding the "next big thing" - from urban renewal plans to a casino proposal to the eventual focus on residential condominium development. Today, Hull is at another crossroads, with shifting demographics and new development projects on the horizon. What is Hull's "next big thing" as it grapples with the remnants of old development models, an aging population, climate change, and its ongoing search for identity? This presentation by Chris Haraden, Hull Historical Society treasurer and contributing editor to The Hull Times will look back at the path that got us here and offer a glimpse of the road ahead.
